WM. E. BELL, Proprietor.

The National Democratic Convention.

ADDRESS OF MR. BELMONT.

On calling the Convention to order, Mr. Belmont said:

Gentlemen of the Convention:—It is my privilege to-day to welcome you here in this hall, constructed with so much artistic taste and tendered to you by the time-honored Society of Tammany. I welcome you to this magnificent temple erected to the Goddess of Liberty by her staunchest defenders and most fervent worshippers. I welcome you to this good city of New York, the bulwark of Democracy, which has rolled back the surging waves of Radicalism through all the storms of the last eighty years; and I welcome you, gentlemen, to our Empire State, which last fall redeemed herself from Republican misrule by a majority of nearly 50,000 votes, and which claims the right to lead the vanguard of victory in the great battle to be fought next November for the preservation of our institutions, our laws, and our liberties.

It is a most auspicious omen that we meet under such circumstances, and are surrounded by such associations, and I share your own confident hope of the overwhelming success of the ticket and platform which will be the result of your deliberations, for it is with the American people that our appeal lies; their judgment will be just. The American people will no longer remain deaf to the teachings of the past. They will remember that it was under successive Democratic administrations, based upon our national principles—principles of constitutional liberty—that our country rose to a prosperity and greatness unsurpassed in the annals of history; they will remember the days when North and South marched shoulder to shoulder together in the conquest of Mexico, which gave us our golden empire in the Pacific, our California and our Oregon, now the strongholds of triumphant Democracy. They will remember the days when peace and plenty reigned over the whole Union; when we had no national debt, to crush the energies of the people; when Federal tax-gatherers were unknown throughout the vast extent of the land; when the credit of the United States stood as high in the money marts of the world as that of any other Government; and they will remember with wise sorrow that with the downfall of the Democratic party in 1860 came that fearful civil war which has brought mourning and desolation into every household; has cost the loss of a million of American citizens, and has left us with a national debt, the burden of which drains the resources, cripples the industry, and impoverishes the labor of the country.—They will remember that, after the fratricidal strife was over—when the bravery of our army and navy, and the sacrifice of the people had restored the Union and vindicated the supremacy of the law—when victor and vanquished were equally ready to bury the past and to hold out the hand of brotherhood and good will across the graves of their fallen comrades—it was again the defeat of Democratic candidates in 1864 which prevented this consummation, so devoutly wished for by all. Instead of trying to wipe out the miseries of the past by a magnanimous policy, dictated alike by humanity and sound statesmanship, and so ardently prayed for by the generous heart of the American people, the Radicals in Congress, elected in an evil hour, have placed the iron heel of the conqueror upon the South.

Austria did not more to fasten upon vanquished Hungary, nor Russia to impose upon conquered Poland the ruthless tyranny now inflicted by Congress upon the Southern States. Military satraps are invested with dictatorial power, overriding decisions of courts and assuming the functions of civil authorities, while populations are disfranchised or forced to submit to test-oaths alike revolting to justice and civilization, and a debased and ignorant race, just emerged from servitude, is raised into power to control the destinies of that fair portion of our common country.

These men, elected to be legislators, and legislators only, trampling the Constitution under their feet, have usurped functions of the executive and the judiciary, and it is impossible to doubt, after the events of the past few months and circumstances of the impeachment, that they will not shrink from an attempt hereafter to subvert the Senate of the United States, which alone stood between them and their victim, and which had virtue enough left not to allow the American name to be utterly disgraced and justice to be dragged in the dust. In order to carry out this nefarious programme our army and navy are kept in times of profound peace on a scale which has involved a yearly expenditure of from one to two hundred millions, prevents a reduction of our national debt, and imposes upon our people a system of most exorbitant and unequal taxation, with a vicious, irredeemable and depreciated currency.

And now this same party, which has brought all these evils upon the country, comes again before the American people, asking for their suffrages; and whom has it chosen for its candidate? The General commanding the armies of the United States! Can there be any doubt left as to the designs of the Radicals if they should be able to keep hold on the reins of government? They intend Congressional usurpation of all branches and functions of the Government to be enforced by the bayonets of military despotism. It is impossible the free and intelligent people can longer submit to such a state of things; they will not calmly stand by to see their liberties subverted, the prosperity and greatness of their country undermined, and institutions bequeathed to them by the fathers of the republic wrested from them. They must see that conservative and national principles of liberal progressive Democracy are the only safeguards of the republic.

Gentlemen of the Convention, your country looks to you to stay the tide of disintegration, violence, and despotism. It will not look in vain when, next November, the roll shall be called, and when State after State shall respond by rallying around the banner of Democracy, on which in the future, as in the past, will be inscribed our undying motto: The Union, the Constitution, and the Laws.

Tilton inquires—"Can no one cure Grant of the horrid habit of smoking, whereof the National Anti-Tobacco league complains?" We have it. Let Bishop Simpson telegraph to Brother Harlan and Brother Wiley "to pray with him."

SOLDIERS' AND SAILORS' CONVENTION.

The Democratic Convention of Soldiers and Sailors was organized in New York on Saturday with Major-General John A. McClernand in the chair. On taking the chair he made an address of very decided character, which was received with great applause.

Immediately after the conclusion of General McClernand's speech, General Lewis D. Campbell presented the following resolutions, premising their introduction with a statement that it was proper that the relations between this Convention of Soldiers and Sailors and the Democratic Nominating Convention now in session at Tammany Hall should be stated distinctly, so that there should be no misrepresentation on the subject; and that while this Convention of Soldiers and Sailors did not assume to dictate any nomination, it had a right to present, respectfully, its opinions upon the great matter to be decided here. General Campbell's resolutions are as follows:

"Whereas, during the late rebellion, we took up arms on the call of our national government, relying on the integrity of Congress in its solemn and unanimous declaration that the object of the war was to defend and maintain the supremacy of the Constitution and to preserve the Union with all the dignity, equality, and rights of the several States unimpaired, and not in any spirit of oppression or for any purposes of conquest or subjugation; and whereas, since the rebellion was subdued and the war terminated, the Radical party has, by a fraudulent use of its power and by force of arms, in violation of the Constitution, perverted the objects for which the great battles were fought and the victories won by the army and navy of the Union; and whereas that party has forfeited all claim to our confidence and support,

Because it has fraudulently and forcibly kept States out of the Union which the army and navy fought and hosts of our comrades bled and died to keep in;

Because it has destroyed the dignity and equality and rights of a portion of the States, and continues to treat the people thereof as conquered and subjugated enemies, exercising over them acts of tyranny unparalleled by those of Great Britain which led to and justified before the civilized world the American revolution;

Because it has placed a stigma upon the otherwise untarnished honor of the Union soldier and sailor by imposing upon those who composed the late Confederate armies, since their surrender, conditions of degradation, in violation of the letter and spirit of the capitulation, when a brave though misguided foe laid down their arms;

Because it has practically suspended, if it has not wholly destroyed, the vital principle of our federal republican system of government, ignoring the rights expressly reserved by the Constitution to the States respectively or to the people, by usurping the constitutional prerogatives of the Executive, and rendering nugatory, through legislation and otherwise, the action of the Judiciary;

Because it has practiced a shameful duplicity by recognizing as in the Union and entitled to the high privilege of amending the Federal Constitution for the abolition of slavery States to which it has denied the right of local legislation and of representation in Congress;

Because it has organized and continues to operate under the guise of charity, at an enormous expense, a political machine known as the Freedmen's Bureau, which it has wielded to perpetuate its power, by establishing under its auspices oath bound leagues of ignorant negroes, has deprived intelligent people of our own race in the Southern States of the right of self government, and endeavored to place in authority over them, through the power of the bayonet, the negroes lately slaves, who are neither qualified for such high duties by the endowment of nature nor by education;

Because it is guilty of gigantic defalcations and the grossest corruptions in the collection and management of the public treasure, and perversely refuses to permit the same to be investigated and exposed;

Because it has practiced a wanton profligacy in the public expenditures which stands without a parallel in history, and threatens an irretrievable national bankruptcy;

Because it has been partial and oppressive in its measures of finance, taxation, and currency, and has inaugurated thereby a system of legalized robbery that makes the rich richer and the poor poorer;

And because it is guilty of manifold other sins of commission and of omission not necessary to be recited herein; therefore

Resolved, That the great principles in defence of which we took up arms having been practically abandoned by the Radical party, we respectfully and urgently appeal to the Democratic party now in National Convention assembled in this city, to nominate a candidate for the Presidency of such known antecedents as will enable us, consistently with our action during the war, to co-operate cordially with it in restoring all the States to their legitimate rights in the Union, and in redeeming the integrity, fraternity, prosperity, and true glory of the American Republic. We desire only an honorable participation in the achievement of that great victory of peace that is to heal the grievous wounds of war.

The resolution was received with thundering applause, but objection was made to its consideration until the permanent organization. General Slocum earnestly advocated the resolution; but the mover preferred to postpone action, as there was objection.

General William B. Franklin, of Connecticut, was appointed permanent Chairman, and made a speech, in which he said that the Chicago Convention did not represent the soldiers and sailors there assembled.—[Cries of "No, no!"]

General Thomas S. Ewing, of Ohio, made a spirited speech, which drew forth great applause. We make an extract:

"The records of the Adjutant General's office showed 2,700,000 men in the Union armies; 2,000,000 would represent the total enlistments. Of this whole number there remain 1,500,000 present voters who fought for the flag of the Union. It was safe to say that one-half of this number were represented by this Convention. [Cries of "Three-fourths," "Two-thirds."] The other half might be saved or lost to the Democratic party by the nomination to day, whether wise or unwise. [Cheers.] The Republican party represents no issue for which we fought. ["No," "no."] We never fought for negro supremacy—["never"]—nor for the exclusion of any States—["no."]—nor for the benefit of any party—["never"]—but we fought for the whole Union.—[Cheers.] If we would preserve the States, their union, their liberties, and those of the people, we must unite with the Democracy.

[Cheers, and "We'll Rally Round the Flag" by the band, the Convention joining in the song and chorus.]

Sergeant Bates, who carried the flag through the South, was invited to the platform.

The rules were suspended, and the following resolution was adopted (without being referred) with great enthusiasm:

Resolved, That the widows and orphans of deceased soldiers and sailors are the especial wards of the nation, and if any class of creditors are to be paid in gold, they, above all others, should have the preference.

The Convention adjourned until Monday.

THE LUNATIC ASYLUM.

We have always regarded this Institution as the noblest charity of the State. Founded in the spirit of benevolence, and owing its origin to purely philanthropic motives, it has, together with the Institution for the Deaf, the Dumb and the Blind, been a monument of the pure benevolence, and the refined intelligence and humanity of the State. Under every change of administration, until now, the foul touch of partyism has never been permitted to enter their walls. Even when under the control of Directors of one political faith, the high philanthropic purposes of both these institutions have never been disturbed by the craven and miserable cry of partyism.

The superintendence of the Lunatic Asylum was, at its very inception, placed in the hands of Dr. Edward C. Fisher, then of Virginia, from no unworthy or sinister motives. His skill in the management of Lunatic Asylums had been tested by his long connection with similar institutions in Virginia, which, together with his eminent attainments as a Physician and his qualities as a gentleman and Christian, peculiarly fitted him for that post. For many years he has maintained his high reputation, without taint or suspicion, and to day he is, perhaps, the only man in North Carolina, who, in all respects, is fully prepared to manage the institution. Next to him is that worthy gentleman, Dr. Fuller, who, at an early age, after completing his medical studies, with commendable sacrifice relinquished the tempting allurements of position and profit, as well as the close endearments of society, in the true spirit of philanthropy, and has spent years of toil as the assistant of Dr. Fisher, devoting himself, on inadequate pay, exclusively to the good work of relieving and promoting the welfare of the demented and lunatic—that most unfortunate class of all our afflicted people.

More than two years ago, in order to secure a more efficient supervision, to correct and prevent abuses, and to throttle, in the outset, the spirit of partyism, then for the first time seeking to control the institution, the General Assembly adopted, what we then thought and what we still think, if carried out in the proper spirit, the very best plan for its management, by placing the entire control of the institution in the hands of the Governor, and five Supervisors whom he might select, residing in this city. Gov. Worth, at once, called to his aid five of our best citizens, gentlemen of exalted social position, of the highest integrity and of unquestioned business character. Without reward, the Governor and these gentlemen have assiduously devoted themselves to the interests of the institution, and we unhesitatingly say, that the Asylum has never been better provided for and never has been so efficient, as within the past two years. At the time alluded to, the General Assembly thwarted the designs of "Gov." Holden to make the institution a political machine, by the appointment of his friend, Dr. Grissom.

The resignation of the old excellent Steward, on the inception of the new regime, two years ago, led to the selection of J. Harvey Moore, Esq., as Steward. The ravages of war and of the hostile army had despoiled the institution of almost every out door comfort, but under the auspices of the Superintendent, and the intelligent supervision of the Board, and by Mr. Moore's prompt assiduity and skill, the grounds, farm, garden, stables and various kinds of stock, have been repaired, greatly improved and replaced, and everything presents the most encouraging aspect. There is no position more difficult to fill than that of Steward. He should be a good accountant, capable of conducting an intelligent correspondence, a good tradesman, capable of buying and selling, a good farmer and gardener and mechanic, a man of undoubted integrity, having the disbursement of some $30,000 per year, a man capable of governing servants, and, withal, a man of a kind, benevolent spirit, and of great industry and energy.—Such a man Mr. Moore has proven himself to be. There cannot be found one white man out of a hundred, if one of a thousand, capable of filling the office well, and we are quite sure there is not a negro in the State, nor any fifty of them combined, who can discharge properly the duties of the office.

On yesterday, we announced the new Board of Supervisors appointed for the Asylum, by "Gov." Holden. For the sake of humanity and for the honor of the State, we could have wished better things of him, but we certainly did not hope or expect it. Not one of the appointees is competent for the high duties pertaining to the office. He might have done far better in his own party. And then the appointment of a Canadian negro preacher to the oversight of the most noble charity of the State, is an outrage upon public decency and propriety, and an insult to the people of the State. The appointments on the Board show that the "Gov." intends to control the whole affair himself, for not one of them would dare differ with him. It is a mere family concern, under such management.

We learn that the new Board of Supervisors have removed Dr. Fisher, and appointed Dr. Eugene Grissom, of Granville, Superintendent. We regret that Dr. Grissom should allow himself to be placed in such a position. He is a good country physician, but his devotion to politics, for the last seven years, has not improved his medical knowledge. We may be in error, but we are strongly impressed with the belief, that no ordinary Physician is at all qualified for the post—no one can be, who has not made the subject of the medical treatment of the insane a specialty, and who has not experience in the management of such institutions. Our objections to Dr. Grissom are neither personal nor political—they are wholly professional. Had he the qualifications of Dr. Fisher or Dr. Fuller, we should not say a word. One of the most intelligent and thorough-bred physicians in the State, whose American and European medical education is equal to that of any one of our acquaintance, remarked to us, two years ago, that he would not, for a moment, think of bringing his qualifications for such a position into competition with those of Dr. Fisher.

It is rumored, that Moses Patterson, an old negro man in this City, is to succeed Mr. Moore as Steward! Another rumor is that Forney Whitaker is to be the Steward. In either case, the institution will be seriously damaged. We wait further developments. It is understood that, under such a regime, the removal of Dr. Fisher is the signal for the leaving of Dr. Fuller, Mr. Moore, (if not himself displaced,) the matron, and every attendant who can find employment elsewhere. If these things be so, what must be the condition of the unfortunate lunatics in the institution? Will the friends of the poor creatures allow them to remain a day longer, than they can effect their removal, if these changes are made?

The impression prevails that the partizan knife is also to be applied to the Institution for the Deaf, Dumb, and the Blind.—We hear that old Handy Lockhart (negro) is to be a Supervisor of that Institution.—Old Handy is a good coffin-maker, and we should not be surprised if, under the new regime, he will be needed as an undertaker.

Let Gov. Holden reconsider his plans and purposes before he destroys these noble charities of the State. He has ample scope for the use of his partizan scalpel on the Railroads, &c. We pledge ourselves not to open our mouths, if he appoints forty negroes, apiece, to manage the Railroads, if he will just spare the charitable institutions of the State from the ravages of the vandals. We have no expectation, however, that he will do so. We know that he is utterly incapable of humane or generous considerations, when their exercise would interfere with his own selfish schemes of personal or political advancement.

THE DESPOTISM OF MAJORITIES.

Never, in the history of Republics, has the doctrine of the "tyranny of majorities" been so fully and so wickedly illustrated, as in the history of this government for the last three years. The State governments projected under this tyranny are likely to outstrip the dominant majority of Congress in the exercise of every device to rivet the chains upon, and to arrest the progress of, truth among the people, by stifling discussion and cutting off all appeals to argument or reason.

This tyranny is not the work of the majority of the people—the recognized Constitutional voters of the Republic. Far from it. There never has been a time, since the close of the war, when the principles and measures of the itadical party, fairly presented, could have received the sanction of the majority of the legal voters among the people of the United States. But the enemies of the Constitution, seizing upon the opportunity afforded them by the peculiar status of affairs arising from the exigencies of the war, and its results, forced upon the people a class of representatives unknown to the Republic in its better days, who, by manipulating the advantages growing out of the peculiarities of their position, and by studiously concealing their real designs, cajoled many of the people, by little and little, to the endorsement of a set of principles and measures which, when taken as a whole, are loathed and hated by the intelligent and trustworthy in all sections. It is not true, and coming events will show it, that the vicious and unconstitutional legislation of Congress, by which the constitutional voters of ten States are put under the ban, and hordes of semi barbarians are put in their stead, as the governing power in the land, is the "higher law," or the vox populi, vox Dei.

Written Constitutions are essential to liberty, and in Republics are the safe guards of right, of law and of justice. Without them, minorities are always oppressed, but, with them, when respected, all, whether individuals or communities, are protected.—"The Constitution of the United States and the laws made in conformity thereto are the supreme law of the land," is a sentiment to which all true Unionists and patriots must subscribe. Those who hold to a "higher law" than these, are the real traitors in this government, and, unless the efforts of true liberty and freedom have been an utter failure in this Republic, coming events will fasten the treason upon the true traitors.

We regret to see some gentlemen in the State Senate, who have had better teaching, who in other days were ready to support and defend the Constitution, now ready to desert that time-honored instrument, which they have but a few days ago sworn to support.

We were not surprised that no one in the Senate, on Monday, felt prepared to reply to the able, indeed irresistible, argument of Mr. Robbins, in support of sound constitutional principles. It was rather creditable to most of them, who, in days of yore, were defenders of that same Constitution and loud in their professions of devotion to it, that they did not attempt to reply; but there are several gentlemen in that body whose consciences, unless they have become seared, would have been more quiet, if they had been dumb, rather than have voted against their own life-long, cherished principles. Alas! that party machinery and party despotism have made such men its manipulators. Once, they were proud freemen, who dared to hold the truth in sincerity, however unpopular or at any cost.—Now they are but the slaves of principles they dare not attempt to defend, and of a party which will not brook the independence of free thought and free action!

GENERAL ASSEMBLY OF NORTH CAROLINA.

BY AUTHORITY OF CONGRESS.

FIRST SESSION.

SENATE.

WEDNESDAY, July 8, 1868.

The Senate was called to order at 10½ o'clock.

Prayer by the Rev. Mr. Welker, from Guilford.

A message was received from the Governor, relative to the resolution authorizing the publication of his Inaugural, &c., and transmitting official papers issued by Gen. Canby heretofore, in reference to carrying out the Reconstruction acts.

BILLS AND RESOLUTIONS.

By Mr. Jones, of Wake: A bill to extend the Chatham Railroad. Referred to the Committee on Internal Improvements.

By Mr. White: A bill for the relief of the sureties of the late Sheriff of Perquimans county.

By Mr. Davis: A resolution fixing the per diem and mileage, allowing $5 per day for each member for every day of actual attendance, and 20 cents mileage.

By Mr. Blythe: Resolution proposing to raise a Joint Committee to be known as the Committee on Salaries and Fees. Lies over.

The following bills and resolutions were taken up and acted upon as follows, to wit:

Bill providing for the relief of Sheriffs and their sureties. Referred to the Committee on the Judiciary.

Resolution providing for the appointment of a Committee to take into consideration arrangements for establishing a Penitentiary. Adopted.

Resolution proposing to raise a Committee to define the duties of a Board of Public Charity. Adopted.

Resolution proposing to admit in Committee of the Whole the Commission on the Code. Amended by striking out all after the word resolved and inserting: "That the several standing Committees be authorized to consult with the Commission on the Code, on any subject which they may deem necessary." As thus amended, adopted.

Mr. Moore's resolution fixing the per diem for members at $6, and Speaker and Clerks at $10, and allowing 20 cents mileage for all, was taken up.

Mr. Blythe moved to strike out $6, and insert $4.

Mr. Barrow moved that this resolution, including all others relating to this subject, be referred to a select Committee; and the reference was made.

Mr. Robbins moved that the galleries of the Senate be allotted to the two races, so as to avoid their mingling.

A. H. Galloway, (negro,) moved to amend as follows: "That the white ladies and gentlemen should occupy one side and the colored ladies and gentlemen the other; and that the centre be occupied by any one who desires to do so;" which was adopted.

The Chair announced: "The Gallery to the right of the Speaker will be set apart for white ladies and gentlemen, and the left to the colored ladies and gentlemen."

The Senate then adjourned until to-morrow morning, 10 o'clock.

The following are the Standing Committees of the Senate, appointed by the Presiding officer, viz:

STANDING COMMITTEES.

Penal Institutions.—Messrs. Lassiter, Welker, Robbins, Beasley, Shoffner, Love and Etheridge.

HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES.

WEDNESDAY, July 8, 1868.

The House was called to order at 10½ o'clock.

Prayer by the Rev. Mr. Shaver, of the House.

Journal of yesterday read and approved.

Mr. Downing was granted a leave of absence for the balance of the week.

The Chair called attention to several Rules of Order, among them Rule 12, concerning Reporters. He quoted from authorities touching the liberties of Reporters and the legal mode of punishment, in case of their treating the body with disrespect.—He also read the resolution passed by the late Convention, and said that several members of this House had complained to him, that the Reporter of the Sentinel added the word "negro" to the names of colored members, which they consider as a personal insult.

The Chair then declared if any Reporter continued the same disrespectful course, he would, by virtue of the authority vested in him, exclude him!

Mr. Abbott, from the Select Committee on Disabilities, asked for instructions whether their functions are restricted to the mere question of admitting to seats persons banned by the 14th article, or whether their powers extend to the investigation of the special cases.

Mr. Sinclair moved to instruct the Committee to investigate each case upon its individual merits.

Mr. Seymour moved to amend, by instructing the Committee to confine their report to the general question "whether members elect, banned by the Howard amendment, are disqualified from taking their seats."

Mr. Durham said that this Committee had been raised by a joint resolution. The Senate branch of it had investigated each special case, and had admitted some five or six Senators. But the Chairman of the House Committee had seen fit to construe the duties of said Committee merely to enquire whether or not the 14th article was operative.

Mr. Abbott replied that he understood the duty of the Committee to be merely to express an opinion as to the legality of the article, supposed to disqualify certain persons claiming seats on this floor.

Mr. Seymour's amendment was put to a vote and adopted.

Mr. Abbott then stated that the Committee would offer a report to-morrow.

A communication was received from the Code Commission, in reply to the resolution recently passed by the House, informing them that the invitation to address the House, in Committee of the Whole, would at some convenient future day be accepted.

RESOLUTIONS, &C.

Mr. Pou offered the following resolutions:

Resolved, by the Senate and House of Representatives, that the Congress of the United States is respectfully requested, now, to remove from all citizens of this State the political disabilities imposed by the 14th Article of the Federal Constitution.

2d, That properly authenticated copies of this resolution be immediately forwarded to the presiding officer of the United States Senate and to the Speaker of the United States House of Representatives.

Mr. Pou made, in support of his resolutions, a lengthy and able speech.

Mr. Ingram did not concur with Mr. Pou. He thought the first part of his speech was rather an apology for secession, &c.

Mr. Sinclair next addressed the House, in support of the resolutions, in a speech of force and eloquence, which will appear hereafter.

Mr. Abbott did not propose to discuss the resolutions at any length. They were identically the same that were introduced in the Republican State Convention, and introduced by the same faction. In regard to Mr. Pou, from what little he knew of him, he did not doubt his honesty and sincerity, but as for the gentleman from Robeson, all he had to say was that he had sent his baggage over to the Conservatives, and he had better follow it.

Mr. Sinclair demanded that the Clerk should take down the words.

Mr. A. took his seat, while the Clerk read the objectionable words.

Mr. Sinclair said he had not objected to the words about the "baggage," but the inference drawn between his honesty and sincerity and that of the gentleman from Johnston, but he now understood that no personal reflection was meant.

Mr. Abbott then resumed in opposition. Until he saw some signs of repentance and good fruits of loyalty, he would suffer his right arm to drop off, and his tongue to cleave to his mouth, before he would flinch from his position in this matter. This resolution was a step towards debauching the politics of the State and taking the power from the hands of the Republicans. He thought the better and safer policy was to strengthen and fortify their position and render their policy impregnable to the future attacks of the disloyal element, &c.

Mr. A. then concluded by moving to adjourn, until to-morrow morning at 10 o'clock, which motion was put and carried.

THAT "INAUGURATION."—The Old North State contains a letter from Raleigh, which has the following relative to the Haytien "Inauguration" on the 4th. It is good:

"I shall not attempt a full description of the proceedings and the audience, for they were indescribable. The crowd, however, consisted of about six thousand negroes—about three hundred white men, including the Legislature, the officers elect, and the office seekers, and just seven white ladies, members of the families of the chief worthies. Twenty blacks to one white! And this is the fact. As a member of the General Assembly I attended—though I should have done so any way,—for I deem it good strategy, when the enemy is near and in force, to look inside of his picket lines if you can. I took my seat in a few feet of the stand, and saw and heard the whole affair. Was I crest-fallen amid it all? Far from it. How proud I felt at the thought that my constituency was white! How from my soul I pitied and contemned these new officers, who have wriggled their slimy way up to so-called high places by negro votes, while the mass of white North Carolinians despise them! I felt more than philosophical. I think I was the most cheerful man there. Why? Because I was more forcibly than ever before impressed with the delightful thought,—this immense absurdity, this fantastic tom-foolery can't live long!

In spite of all the attempts to galvanize the ceremonies into a show of joy and of dignity, no one could fail to see that real gloom prevailed in the secret souls of many who would refuse to confess it; and an air of ridiculosity would cling to the scene. It was easy to imagine ourself attending upon a grand farce in some play-house; and this was what it resembled. Negroes here, negroes there, negroes everywhere, shouting loud and smelling still louder! They darkened the scene so that you could only see clearly now and then when the cannon flashed. The fact is, the whole affair constituted a spectacle never to be forgotten." It completely "removed the dilapidated linen from the shrubbery," an I no mistake.

I heard one Radical Senator say that Africa must be depopulated to-day, for all the negroes in the world were here. Many others felt unutterable things—they need not deny it—I saw it in their faces! Be of good cheer, white men of North Carolina; this thing will play out,—it will cure itself,—and sooner than many suppose. Poor fool negroes, dreaming silly dreams of greatness and honor;—idling, parading gaping, expecting;—how sad will be your waking up! I pity you in my inmost heart."

Grant's progress westward is somewhat remarkable. Considering that he is accounted by his flatterers "the great Captain of the age," and that he is the nominee of a great party for the Presidency, it is almost inconceivable that he should be able to travel through crowded populations without the slightest recognition of his presence.—A militia captain would cause as great a stir. He comes and goes, and no throngs of people press upon him, no admiring plaudits rend the air, no loud huzzas betoken his entrance or exit. What means all this? Have the laurels of the hero wilted? Has the blood wastefully shed by a blundering butcher nauseated the popular stomach? Or has the Radical ring-master directed his clown to sneak through the country, lest, inopportunely, some word should be spoken which would expose the imbecility of this would-be President?—Rich. Enquirer.

Holden, the famous, delivered his inaugural on Saturday. It fills four columns of the Raleigh Sentinel. It is extremely solemn, radical and niggerish. He betrays his race and belies the principles to which he has devoted the best years of his miserable life. This inaugural fills his cup of infamy.—Pet. Express.

In two years three men from Cherokee county, Ala., have been committed to the lunatic asylum, all of them members of the loyal league, and of twenty men criminally prosecuted in that county, during the same time, all were members of the league except one.

A person passing through a certain town, and observing upon a door the name of "Haswell," remarked that the gentleman's name would be as well without the H.

Somebody says, "a wife should be like a roasted lamb—tender and nicely dressed." A scamp adds, "and without any sauce."

Mr. Beeswax thinks the railroad family must be very large, since it has so many connections all over the country.

JONATHAN WORTH.—In retiring from the Gubernatorial Chair of North Carolina, Gov. Worth will have the proud satisfaction of knowing that he takes with him to private life the esteem and confidence of these men in North Carolina whose esteem and confidence are worth something.

Thousands, who distrusted Gov. Worth when first nominated, have learned the value of the man, his sterling integrity, incorruptible honesty, and firm devotion to the right—have learned to appreciate his sound practical sense and the administrative abilities which he has displayed.

He retires to private life, at a period in the history of the State pregnant with great interests—at a time when the Old State is passing away and when vital changes are taking place. May health and success attend him, and may his latter years behold the State of his love, regenerated, disenthralled and redeemed from the rule of ballawagery, bounding forward in a career of unexampled prosperity!—Newbern Journal of Commerce.

A Radical editor says he "never takes up a copperhead paper that he is not reminded of the saying—'The fools are not all dead yet.'" That reminds us of the saying that "open confessions are good for the soul."

Forney says that Chief Justice Chase is "throwing his bait into a polluted stream." He must be fishing for you, Forney.

"We're in a pickle now," said a man in a crowd. "A regular jam," said another.—"Heaven preserve us," mourned an old lady.

DIED:

COLLEGES AND SCHOOLS.

Louisburg Female College,
FRANKLIN CO., N. C.

THE FALL SESSION OF 1868 will begin on the 13th day of August.
The success of the institution, under its present administration, has far surpassed the expectations of its most sanguine friends.
CHARGES PER SESSION OF 20 WEEKS:
Board (exclusive of washing and lights) and Tuition in the regular English course and Ancient Languages, $160. Extra Studies moderate. $50 in advance,—remainder at the end of the session.
ADVANTAGES.
An able, energetic, and successful Faculty; an extensive and wisely arranged course of study; a judicious and thorough system of instruction; a select Chemical and Philosophical apparatus; a good Library; fine Musical Instruments; a beautiful, pleasant, and healthful location; a large, commodious building, with rooms well ventilated and well warmed in winter; excellent water, good fare; kind attention to the wants of the pupils; mild and efficient government, and ample Religious privileges.
For Circulars, containing full particulars, apply to
T. M. JONES,
June 15-tf President.

Thomasville Female College,
THOMASVILLE, N. C.

THE FALL SESSION of this institution will commence on Tuesday, the 4th of August, and continue twenty weeks.
BOARD: $10 per month, and other charges proportionally low. SIXTY DOLLARS must be prepaid by each young lady on entering, and the balance at the close of the term.
The Faculty is full and composed of able and experienced Teachers. The course is extensive, embracing all the solid and ornamental branches taught in other Female Colleges. The religious advantages are unsurpassed.
This College is located between Salisbury and Greensboro', in one of the most beautiful and healthy towns on the N. C. Central Railroad, and is in two miles of the celebrated "Helton Chalybeate Springs." And at the additional expense of 25 cents per day any of the "College girls" can have the constant use of the water.
For Circulars, containing full particulars, address
Rev. D. R. BRUTON,
June 24-d2aw.swkwt10th aug. President.

Wake Forest College, N. C.

THE FALL TERM OF THIS INSTITUTION will open on the first day of August 1868, with the prospect of increased patronage and success. The complete assurance given at the recent Commencement, of the adaptedness of the University system to the wants of the times, and of its feasibility, encourages its friends to believe that the College has entered upon a career of popularity and usefulness hitherto unknown in its history. The financial embarrassments to which all Southern Colleges have been subjected are not felt to the same extent at Wake Forest as at some others, in consequence of the considerable amount of original endowment saved, and of the favorable reception with which the Agent of the College meets in securing additional funds. An expenditure of more than $2,000 has been recently made in improving the condition of the building and grounds.
Determined to bring its advantages within reach of the largest number possible, the Trustees, seconded by the community, have reduced the price of Board and Tuition to the lowest practicable rates.
The officers of instruction are gentlemen of tried ability in their several departments, and the success attending their efforts in the past is the best guarantee the public can have for the future.
The location of the College in point of healthfulness and accessibility, (being situated on the Raleigh & Gaston Railroad a few miles from the Capital of the State,) is not surpassed by that of any other in the land; while the moral and social influences connected with and surrounding it, and the peculiar discipline enforced, present inducements to patronage of no ordinary kind.
A system of PUBLIC LECTURES on literary and scientific subjects has been introduced, with a view to increase the interest of the young men in the several departments of study, and to furnish additional incentives to investigation and research.
Extensive and well selected LIBRARIES belonging to the Societies, and complete APPARATUS, PHILOSOPHICAL and CHEMICAL, are not to be omitted in the enumeration of the advantages possessed.
Another encouraging feature is that there are, at present, thirteen young men engaged in studies preparatory to the work of the Ministry; and it may not be amiss to state that any Minister, who may apply for admission, will receive tuition in all the departments free of charge, and those of this class, who are without means, are encouraged to apply to the Board of Education for further assistance.

THE SENTINEL.

LOCAL DEPARTMENT.

THURSDAY, JULY 9, 1868.

NEW ADVERTISEMENT.—Notice of application to the Legislature to incorporate the town of Selma, Johnston Co.

WATERMELONS are beginning to make their appearance in our markets. They command prices, as yet, however, which are beyond "our pile."

THANKS to our excellent friend, J. G. Marler, Esq., of Yadkinsville, for a club of subscribers to the Sentinel.

BACK NOS.—The accessions to our subscription list have been so great, within the past few days, that all the back numbers are exhausted. New subscribers will please take this as an answer to their respective applications.

OMITTED.—We deem it hardly worth while to publish the proceedings of the "House of Representatives," on Tuesday afternoon, (the Senate was not in session.) They were exclusively confined to the consideration of the Report of the Committee on Rules of Order, which was finally adopted. Messrs. Durham and Argo made vigorous but unsuccessful efforts to defeat the iniquitous gag law called the Previous Question.

N. C. RAILROAD.—The Annual Meeting of the Stockholders of this Company will be held in this city, to-day. The proceedings will be of a highly interesting character, doubtless. We learn that the following Directors have been appointed by the "Governor," viz: Dr. Sloan, of Mecklenburg; John McDonald, of Cabarrus; W. F. Henderson, of Davidson; G. W. Welker, of Guilford; Silas Burns, of Chatham; W. D. Jones, of Wake; W. H. Harrison, of Wake; W. A. Smith, of Johnson.

AT THE LATE Commencement of the University of Mississippi, at Oxford, the degree of LL.D. was conferred on Rev. G Wilson McPhail, D. D., President of Davidson College in this State,—a well deserved compliment to a finished scholar and learned Divine.

INCENDIARISM.—Three seperate attempts were made to set fire to Salisbury, on Monday night last. In every instance, the fire was discovered in time to extinguish the flames before any serious damage was done.

THE JOHNSTON COMMISSIONERS DUMBFOOZLED.—We learn that three of the "soil" Commissioners elect for Johnston met at Smithfield, on Monday, for the purpose of qualifying and passing upon the bond of the new Sheriff. After the interesting trio had scratched their heads a long time over the situation,—wondered if "Gov." Holden was sure enough Governor or only Gen. Canby's appointee,—and wondered a heap of other things,—they finally adjourned until Tuesday next, in order that they might find out whether we had a Governor or not! Col. Cook, of Maine, will have to go down and post up "Raby," and the balance of that precious "Board."

BLOODSHED IN NEWBERN.—Newbern was the scene of a terrible disturbance among the negroes, on Monday night, amounting to a regular "battle royal"—or loyal. We learn, from the Journal of Commerce, that the negro soldiers in that city, being about to leave, were turned loose on that night and were the instigators of the row. About fifteen of them went across the Trent to the negro settlement called James city, where the citizen negroes were having a dance.—Without provocation, the soldiers began to fire upon the assemblage. We let our Newbern cotemporary tell the rest of the bloody story, so far as it was known at the time the paper was issued:

"The citizen negroes flew to arms. In the melee which followed, the soldiers were badly worsted. What their loss was is not known. Two are supposed to have been killed, and six, severely wounded, have already been brought to the city. Of the citizens, Frank Menninger, brother to the Secretary of State, was the only one seriously injured. (What was he doing there?)

Sheriff Fleming hastened to the scene and found no difficulty in prevailing on the negroes to stop the fighting. To him the citizens of the county are indebted for preventing the further effusion of blood.

We will probably hear fuller particulars to-day. As the matter is now understood, the whites of the city, many of whom we have heard so express themselves, feel much pleased at the prompt action taken by the negro citizens of James City, in protecting their lives and property."

GEORGIA.—The Legislature of Georgia was fully organized on the 6th. inst. In the Senate, all the officers chosen were Radicals. In the House the organization was Democratic. It is confidently expected that two Democrats may be elected to the United States Senate from this State.

A CORRESPONDENT of the "Old North State" truly says of Holden's "Inaugural," that its two salient point are: "Nobody but Rads for office,—and a Brownlow Melish!"

LEGISLATURE, YESTERDAY.

In the Senate, the proceedings, it will be seen, were unimportant.

In the House, Mr. Pou, (Republican,) of Johnston, introduced a series of resolutions requesting Congress to remove political disabilities from all citizens of North Carolina, who might be laboring under them, and supported them in a liberal and forcible speech. Col. Sinclair, of Robeson, also advocated them with energy and ability. No one, as yet, we believe, except Gen. Abbott, of New Hampshire, via New Hanover, the representative of the carpet-bag element, has lifted his voice, in the House, in opposition to them. We reproduce the words of the Charlotte Democrat:

"The fact that a man, who spent his past life at the North, and only became a resident of North Carolina after the close of the war, and obtained civil office by force of military law, should countenance, aid or assist in proscribing the old native citizens of the State, is contemptible."

It will be observed, by the report, that Gen. Abbott spoke of Mr. Pou's resolutions as a step towards "debauching the politics" of the State. A fit speech, truly, from the representative of a class of men, who have done more to debauch and degrade the politics of the South than fifty previous years had been able to effect,—who have brought among us all the mean and disgusting expedients of Yankee politics,—who have manipulated the negro vote, in solid column, against the interests of the white race and the peace and dignity of our good old State,—and who have made familiar to our ears the name of "Rings" and such low party machinery! Psh! "An ounce of civet."

OUR REPORTS AND REPORTERS.—The Sentinel is the only paper having regular reporters in both Houses, or which furnishes the public with correct proceedings of the General Assembly. The reports were never more faithful or better, in this city. We are pleased to know that many of the Opposition endorse the correctness and propriety of our reports.

We see it is stated that complaints are made of our Reporter in the House, because he employs the term "negro," simply as a matter of information to the public. There is a manifest propriety and necessity that the public should know who are the representatives of the people, and what they are doing. If the negro members of the body exhibit any capacity for legislation, they are entitled to the credit, and the public should know it. There is nothing derogatory to a man of the African race, if at all mixed with it, to be termed a negro. It is a simple designation of race, and is no more derogatory than the use of the words Caucasian, Indian, Mongolian or Malay, when applied to those races; and those who complain only show a miserable want of sense.

We have acted from a deliberate conviction of its propriety, and shall not be deterred from it by the threats of any one.—Our reports shall be fair, faithful and decorous to the General Assembly, but we shall not yield to the miserable, dirt-eating, self-degrading course which some adopt, to please any one. Any attempt to remove our Reporters on that account, we shall charge to the low, mean, base designs of the friends of the Standard, who are too stingy to pay Reporters to report for that paper, but which the Reporters of the Sentinel expelled, in order to persuade the General Assembly, as they did the Convention, to pay Reporters for the benefit of the Standard. Let them do their worst. We defy them.

One word more. It is not stated by whom these complaints are made. If by the negro members, it is an indication that they are ashamed of their race and color,—a very bad sign; if by white men, it is an indication that they are ashamed of the company of the negroes,—a poor compliment to the latter, which they should properly appreciate.

ARE WE "PIG OR PUPPY"—PROVISIONAL OR PERMANENT?

We don't know. It would take forty Philadelphia lawyers, and a dozen politico legal-military Satraps, with several "Governors" and "Lieut. Governors," to decide. All that we do know is that Gen. Canby, on Tuesday, issued an order, as we learn by a telegram received on yesterday, "restoring civil rule in North Carolina, WHEN the President shall have proclaimed the ratification of the Constitutional amendment.—The functions of the military officers are THEN to cease. Prisoners in custody, under charges of a violation of the Reconstruction acts, then to be discharged; those in prison for other offences to be turned over to the civil authorities."

The latter clause of this order will have the effect of turning over Capt. Tolar, and his unfortunate fellow sufferers, and others similarly situated, to the "tender mercies" of a county jail under the new regime.—Why is not a writ of Habeas Corpus applied for?

WE SHALL publish, at an early day, (possibly to morrow,) the late admirable speech of Mr. Robbins, in the Senate. We refer to that upon the resolutions, offered by himself, (and rejected by the Senatorial worshippers of Congress, and enemies of their State and race,) proposing that North Carolina make a solemn Declaration that she does not regard, as binding upon her, the "fundamental condition" of the Omnibus Bill, which vainly seeks to impose restrictions upon her right hereafter to regulate the elective franchise within her own borders.

For the Sentinel.

BOONE, WATAUGA, Co., N. C., }
June 30th., 1868. }

Editors of the Sentinel:—The following original little poetical speech was delivered, on Friday evening, a few weeks since, at Miss Evie Brown's school, by a boy only seven years old:

Whilst I'm a boy, I'll go to school
And study my lessons well;
It looks so bad to see grown men
That cannot read and spell.

And when I get to be a man
I'll not equalize with negroes;
I will not be a Radical,
Nor join the Union leaguers. H.

Caleb Cushing, who is following his profession in Washington, is sixty eight years old, and is said to be the freshest and most youthful man of his age in America.

THE GREAT CONVENTION.

The pressure upon our columns is so great, that we cannot give as full particulars of the great National Democratic Convention, now in session in New York, as we could desire, though we will endeavor to furnish such abstracts as will give our readers a general idea of what is done. Thus far we have only received the detailed proceedings of the first day, which were devoted mainly to the preliminaries of organization. On our first page will be found the opening address of Hon. Auguste Belmont, Chairman of the National Democratic Executive Committee, and an interesting epitome of the first day's doings in the National Soldiers' and Sailors' Convention.

The Committee on Platform being very important, we give it as follows:

Charles C Langdon, Alabama; A H Garland, Arkansas; A H Rose, California; Tilton E Doolittle, Connecticut; James H Bayard, Delaware; Wilkinson Call, Florida; Henry S Fitch, Georgia; William J Allen, Illinois; J E McDonald, Indiana; John H O'Neil, Iowa; Colonel G W Glick, Kansas; William Preston, Kentucky; Jas B Eustis, Louisiana; R D Rice, Maine; Stevenson Archer, Maryland; Edward Avery, Massachusetts; Charles E Stewart, Michigan; E A McMahon, Minnesota; Charles Manson, Missouri; M E Barksdale, Mississippi; C F Porter, Nebraska; J A St Clair, Nevada; J R Wortendyke, New Jersey; Henry C Murphy, New York; Robert Strange, North Carolina; W. J Gilmore, Ohio; A D Fitch, Oregon; Francis W Hughes, Pennsylvania; Thomas Steere, Rhode Island; Wade Hampton, South Carolina; Edmund Cooper, Tennessee; George W Smith, Texas; Chas N Davenport, Vermont; Thomas S Bocock, Virginia; John J Davis, West Virginia; Jas A Mallory, Wisconsin.

Gen. W. R. Cox, of this city, was on the Committee on Credentials, and Hon. W. N. H. Smith, of Hertford, on the Committee on Permanent Organization.

In numbers, character and ability, this great Convention surpasses any ever held before in this country. It has attracted to New York immense numbers of persons from all parts of the country; and it is estimated that fully 200,000 strangers are in the city. This fact is significant of the absorbing interest which is felt in the deliberations of the Convention, and of the intensity of popular feeling which has been awakened by the infamies of the Radical usurpationists.

We await, simply with curiosity, the names of the nominees. Now that so admirable a Platform has been adopted, the selection of a candidate, provided he has some of the elements of availability, is a matter of secondary consequence.

THE NATIONAL DEMOCRATIC CONVENTION!

FURTHER UNSUCCESSFUL BALLOTINGS!!

NEW YORK, July 8 M.

On the Seventh ballot, Indiana split,—the minority voting for Hendricks; Mississippi for Pendleton. Tennessee four and a half for Pendleton.

Eighth Ballot: Louisiana for Pendleton, New York for Hendricks. (Wildest excitement, cheers and hisses.) Result: Pendleton 156½; Hendricks 75.

Ninth ballot: Pendleton 144, Hendricks 80½; Hancock 34½. The balance were widely scattered. Pennsylvania adheres to Packer.

The tenth and eleventh ballots show but little change.

On the eleventh ballot, Chase received one and a half votes. (Great applause, and some hisses.)

Twelfth ballot: Pendleton 145½; Hancock 30; Hendricks 89; Chase ½; McClellan 1.

Thirteenth Ballot—Shows little change; McClellan's name don't appear. Franklin Pierce received one vote.

NO NOMINATION YESTERDAY!

GENERAL HANCOCK'S CHANCES BEST!!!

NEW YORK, July 8, P. M.

The Pendleton column broke on the 18th ballot, when Hancock received 144, Hendricks 89, and the rest scattering.

Hancock's chances best. North Carolina voted solid for him on the last four ballots.

There is no certainty as to the result to-morrow.

The Convention adjourned until to-morrow, to enable the delegates to caucus. H.

THE NATIONAL DEMOCRATIC CONVENTION.—RESULTS OF BALLOTING.

NEW YORK, July 8, P. M.

The vote on the 18th ballot was considered as an indication that Hancock has reached his ultimatum.

On the 13th ballot, Virginia voted for Hancock. The 14th was unchanged.

On the 15th, Connecticut splits, giving Hancock three; Nebraska goes Hendricks; Pennsylvania votes for Hancock. Result: Pendleton 129, Hancock 79½, Hendricks 82½.

On the 16th ballot, Arkansas, Georgia and Louisiana voted for Hancock. Result: Hancock 116, Pendleton 107, Hendricks 79.

On the 17th ballot, Illinois split between Hendricks and Pendleton; Nebraska votes for Hoffman. Result: Hancock 137, Pendleton 70, Hendricks 80.

On the 18th ballot, New Jersey gives Hancock 9; Illinois votes solid for Hendricks. Result: Pendleton 56, Hancock 144, Hendricks 87.

To-day's balloting shows nothing definite.

Hancock's friends were confident of a favorable result on the 14th ballot, but the event discouraged them very much, and they reluctantly yielded to adjournment.

Coalition between Hendricks and Pendleton is hopeless, and it is apprehended that Hancock has achieved his highest vote.

The details of the 18th and last ballot were: Alabama, Hancock 8; Arkansas, Hancock 5; California, Hancock 1½; Pendleton, 3, Chase ½; Connecticut, Hancock 3, Pendleton, 3; Delaware, Hancock 1, Pendleton 2; Florida, Hancock 3; Georgia, Hancock, 9; Illinois, Hendricks 16; Indiana, Pendleton 3, Hendricks 10; Iowa, Pendleton 8; Kansas, Hancock 1, Hendricks 2; Kentucky, Hancock 4½, Pendleton 4½, Hendricks 2; Louisiana, Hancock 7; Maine, Hancock 4½, Pendleton 1½, Hendricks ½; Massachusetts, Hancock 11, Pendleton 1; Michigan, Hendricks 8; Minnesota, Hancock 7, Hendricks 4; Nebraska, Hoffman 4; Nevada, Pendleton 3; New Hampshire, Hancock 4½, Pendleton 1, Hendricks 1½; New Jersey, Hancock 3, Pendleton ½, Parker 3½; New York, Hendricks 33; North Carolina, Hancock 9; Ohio, Pendleton 21; Oregon, Pendleton 3; Pennsylvania, Hancock 26; Rhode Island, Doolittle 4; South Carolina, Hancock 6; Tennessee, Johnson 10; Texas, Hancock 6; Vermont, Hendricks 5; Virginia, Hancock 10; West Virginia, Hendricks 5; Wisconsin, Doolittle 8.

CONGRESS.

WASHINGTON, July 8, P. M.

Senate.—The tax bill was considered to adjournment, without a conclusion. Night session was ordered.

The House considered appropriations all day, finding time, however, to pass a bill removing disabilities from certain parties.

WASHINGTON, July 8, P. M.

A Radical committee from Mississippi is coming to illustrate frauds in the recent election.

The Senate Judiciary Committee, after considering Evarts' nomination for the Attorney Generalship, has reported favorably. Ayes: Trumbull, Frelinghuysen, Johnson and Hendricks.—Nays: Stewart, Edmunds and Conkling.

Senator Grimes has recovered from his recent paralysis.

Gen. McDowell, who was recently removed from command in Mississippi, has arrived.

Greeley is the prominent candidate in New York for the Governorship.

It is stated, on excellent authority, that Hancock has written a letter, declining positively to be a candidate for Vice President.

ÆTNA LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY,

OF HARTFORD, CONN.

ASSETS, $9,000,000.

No. POLICIES 52,700.

DIVISIBLE SURPLUS $1,884,768,51.

DIVIDENDS, 50 per cent.

In these days of competition between Life Insurance Companies much is said by rival Agents, each claiming that company he represents to be the best. Without saying anything in disparagement of any Company, or, by simple assertion, anything in its favor, the ÆTNA begs leave to refer to the annexed table, compiled from the OFFICIAL and SWORN statements of TWENTY of the largest Companies in America, made to the Insurance Commissioners of the State of New York. The table shows the ratio of expense to each $100 received by each Company, for the three years ending January 1, 1868.

It will be seen that the expenses of the Ætna are much lower than any other Company; and, after the average is struck, the ÆTNA, in 1865, saved $10.41 out of each $100 received—more than the average; in 1866, $7.17, and in 1867, $4.90. The receipts of the ÆTNA were, in 1865, $1,555,309; in 1866, $3,522,576, and in 1867, $5,129,447. Consequently, its savings in the three years were $977,919.39, to which add 7 per cent. interest to July 1, 1868: $120,287.64, making a grand total of $1097,207 03 saved over the average of all other Companies.

This is the measure of success, as applied by the Hon Elisur Wright, the greatest of American actuaries, to all Companies, and simply means that the Company whose RATIO of expense to its income is the least, is the best able to pay large dividends to its policy holders. That the ÆTNA is THAT Company, these comparisons of official statements plainly show.

Official Statement showing the Expenses and Losses by the Twenty Largest Insurance Companies in America.

PHŒNIX MUTUAL

LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY.

EDSON FESSENDEN, President. | JAMES F. BURNS, Secretary.

IN PRESENTING THE CLAIMS OF THE PHŒNIX MUTUAL LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY, to the people of North Carolina, the Agent invites their attention to the following statements:

1. It is a Mutual Company, the profits being divided among the insured.
2. Its insured are allowed to travel and reside in any part of the United States and Europe, at all seasons of the year.
3. Its dividends have averaged 50 per cent yearly, and are payable on the amount of premium paid by the insured.
4. Its policies are all NON-FORFEITING.
5. Its losses have been met by the annual interest received alone,—and a surplus of interest left over to swell the general fund belonging to the insured.
6. It has paid over $500,000 of losses, and NEVER CONTESTED A CLAIM.
7. Its rates of assurance are as cheap as any Company doing a safe business.
8. IT WILL NOT INSURE AN UNSOUND LIFE.
9. One half the premium will be received in the note of the insured—which note, in case of death, is NEVER deducted from the face of the policy.
10. IT HAS NO CONNECTION WITH FIRE INSURANCE.

Relative character of the Companies operating in North Carolina, as to their Assets and Liabilities, taken from the New York Insurance Report for the year 1867, which is the last report—showing how much of Assets each Company has to meet each dollar of Liability:

NEW ARRANGEMENT

FOR THE

SENTINEL.

Puldished in the City of Raleigh, N. C.,

Daily, Semi Weekly and Weekly.

William E. Pell, }
Seaton Gales, } Editors.

In view of the scarcity of money, and the severity of the times, the Proprietor of the SENTINEL has determined to reduce the terms of the paper, to commence after the 31st. DECEMBER, next, and to make such improvements in its general character as will commend it to the patronage of an enlightened public.

In POLITICS it will be thoroughly Conservative, advocating, at all times:

A strict observance of the Constitution of the United States, and the harmonious Union of equal States;

Obedience to law and the enforcement of order;

The supremacy of the civil over the military, in time of peace;

The equality of the three co-ordinate branches of the government;

The sovereignty of the States over their own internal affairs, in strict conformity to the Constitution;

The maintenance of freedom and justice to all, without distinction of color, but the supremacy of the white race as the governing class;

Opposition to Radicalism in all its phases.

As a NEWS journal, it shall be equal to any.

The principal markets will be regularly published.

Its LITERARY character shall be maintained and improved, by contributions from our best writers.

Finally, the SENTINEL will seek to be the special promoter of the educational, moral and economical interests of the people of North Carolina.

Terms:

Daily Sentinel, for one year,		$8 00
" "	six months,	4 00
" "	three months,	2 00
Semi-Weekly Sentinel, for one year,		4 00
" "	six months,	2 00
" "	three months,	1 00
Weekly "	for one year,	2 00
" "	six months,	1 00

All subscriptions strictly cash in advance.

As an advertising medium, the SENTINEL is equal to any in the State. Terms moderate.

☞ We ask every Conservative in the State to become our Agent to extend the circulation of the SENTINEL. The events of 1868 will be exciting and important. The WEEKLY SENTINEL should be in the hands of the great body of the people — The terms are now so low that every one will be able to pay for it.

W. E. PELL,
Raleigh, Jan. 1st., 1868. Proprietor

GENERAL REMARKS.

Revenue stamps may be used indiscriminately upon any of the matters or things enumerated in Schedule B., except proprietary and playing card stamps, for which a special use has been provided.

Postage stamps cannot be used in payment of the duty chargeable on instruments.

It is the duty of the maker of an instrument to affix and cancel the stamp thereon. If he neglects to do so, the party for whom it is made may stamp it before it is used; and, if used after the 30th of July, 1864, and used without a stamp, it cannot afterwards be effectually stamped. Any failure upon the part of the maker of an instrument, to appropriately stamp it, renders him liable to a penalty of two hundred dollars.

Suits are commenced in many States by other process than writ, viz: summons, warrants, publication, &c., in which case these, as the original process, severally require stamps.

Writs of scire facias are subject to stamp duty as original process.

The jurat of an affidavit, taken before a Justice of the Peace, Notary Public, or other officer duly authorized to take affidavits, is held to be a certificate, and is subject to a stamp duty of five cents, except when taken in suits of legal proceedings.

Certificates of loan in which there shall appear any printed or written evidence of an amount of money to be paid on demand or at any time designated, are subject to stamp duty as Promissory Notes.

The assignment of a mortgage is subject to the same duty as that imposed upon the original instrument; that is to say, for every sum of five hundred dollars, or any fractional part thereof, of the amount secured by the mortgage, at time of its assignment, there must be affixed a stamp or stamps, denoting a duty of five cents.

When two or more persons join in the execution of an instrument, the stamps to which the instrument is liable, under the law, may be affixed and cancelled by one of the parties.

In conveyance of real estate, the law provides that the stamp affixed must answer to the value of the estate or interest conveyed.

No stamp is required on warrant of attorney accompanying a bond or note, when such bond or note has affixed thereto the stamp or stamps denoting the duty required, and whenever any bond or note is secured by mortgage, but one stamp duty is required on such papers, and a stamp duty being the highest rates required for such instruments, or either of them. In such case a note or memorandum of the value or denomination of the stamp affixed should be made upon the margin or in the acknowledgment of the instrument which is not stamped.
